Hello, my name is Emma, and I am a strategic communications and marketing student at the University of Kansas. I am currently exploring various career paths in communications, and two areas I am particularly interested in are advertising and public relations. Outside of class, I am currently a member of The Agency, a student-run advertising agency in the William Allen White School of Journalism and Mass Communications. I also enjoy being involved in the School of Business's Undergraduate Business Council, and I find joy in <span style="font-

&#10087; Arts &#9753;
</h3>

In my spare time, I love engaging with the performing arts:

<ul>
<li>Before coming to college, I was a dancer for sixteen years, and I still enjoy supporting arts events.</li>
<li>I am currently working towards the KU Arts Engagement Certificate.</li>
<li>I had a PR/Communications internship this past summer at Starlight Theatre, which presents Broadway shows and concerts in Kansas City, MO.</li>
</ul>

<h3 class="bioh3">
&#10087; Coding &#9753;
</h3>

This is my first time taking a coding class. While I am a little nervous, I am excited to learn a new skill.

As a final introduction to who I am, here is my favorite quote:

<blockquote>
"Yesterday is history; tomorrow is a mystery; today is a gift. That's why they call it the present."
